SAKE

Samurai Sake Junmai Daiginjo	4 cl / 140 Kč
	30 cl / 765 Kč 72 cl / 1540 Kč

Hokkaido pref, -50 % polishing ratio - 16 % alc.
Samurai Rice Sake from Asahikawa Distillery in Hokkaido has a deep flavor and sharp taste from the use of very pure rice grains. Traditionally, sake is consumed cold, hot, or on ice as the Samurai used to drink it but also with soda and/or lime juice. Its consumption is recommended for sake-based cocktails, but also with sushi, sashimi, seafood and salmon tartar.

Daina “Beyond the Wall Sake” – junmai Ginjo 72 cl / 2370 Kč
Tochigi prefecture - 55 % polishing ratio - 13 % alc.
The Beyond the Wall sake collection is a limited edition celebrating the manga Attack of the Titans.
This sake is a Junmai Ginjo made with Yamadahnishiki rice. It is the unique model “Titan”. This titan is called “Daina Fritz”.
.Despite its slightly lower alcohol content, this undiluted sake has full strawberry notes and a gently fading aftertaste.

Nito Omachi Junmai Daiginjo 72 cl / 2150 Kč
Aichi prefecture, - 52 % polishing ratio, 16 % alc.
Rice milling rate:48%, outside 52% is polished. Yeast name:No. 7, which is a traditional yeast used in Japan since 1940, known to give this fruity flavor and aroma. Pasteurization:1 time after bottling, which helps to preserve the aroma. Only those who pursue 2 rabbits get 2 rabbits. Nito tries to pursue both directions! Sweet and spicy, aroma and taste, fore and aft, heavy and light, complex and clean. It has a supple cherry aroma, suave sweetness with a fruity taste and elegant acidity. The finish is beautiful and clean.

Shiroku junmai yuzu sake (liqueur) 4 cl / 165 Kč 50 cl / 1685 Kč
Gifu prefecture, alcohol 8,5 %.
This Sake consists of Junmai Sake and Yuzu juice. Yuzu is a citrus fruit from East Asia very popular in Japan.
The taste of Sake is sweet and refreshing. Good combination with desserts and fruit.
